THE TELEGRAPH.

Friday Morning, Oct. 1st 1880.

LOCAL NEWS.

The trees are blossoming for a second crop of fruit, up in Geneva.

The October term of the Common Pleas Court commences on the 18th.

Teachers examination at New Lyme on Tuesday, October 4th.

The A. & P. Ry. carried nearly 3,000 persons to the Warren meeting.

There will be a regular meeting of the Council next Wednesday evening.

We want the address of J. B. Spencer, for whom an advance subscription has been paid.

Mr. E. A. Willard has received another lot of drugs and groceries which close buyers should call and examine.

The little town meetings of Connecticut take place next Monday. They are a straw that generally show which way the wind blows.

Rev. Mr. McGiffert, Prof. Graves, and E. L. Lupton, being in town the other day in reference to Teachers' examination, made the Treasurer's office a call.

Senator Cooklin came up the Lake shore road on Monday evening and was taken to the A. & P. station and with President Chubburn left for Warren.

The Teachers' examination heretofore advertised in these columns to take place on Monday, October 11th, at Geneva, has been changed to Saturday October 10th.

Mr. Woolver of Mechanicsville, according to the Gazette, gathered the past season 1,233 bushels of wheat, and has put in the present fall, 200 acres for the next year's crop.

Nate Smith develops enterprise, and shows as much tact in the conduct of his business as the older heads. He had quite an imposing display of his wares at the County Fair.

Major Hubbard informs us that he was a resident of Warren in 1840, when at a political gathering Tom Corwin addressed the multitude, which did not compare with that of Tuesday.

The firm of Baird Brothers, manufacturers of rubber stamps, has been dissolved. Milton I. Baird withdrawing, who goes to Pittsburgh. William C. Baird will continue the business at the old stand.

Capt. Crosby will be present at the next drill meeting of the Artillery, and he desires to see every member present. Pay for the men in camp has arrived and will be ready for disbursement at that time.

After years, Connecticut has had a successful fair—a fine exhibition and good attendance. The Lake View park has already become a place of landscape beauty, and this is the spot selected for the fair-ground.

The following are the elected officers of the Ashtabula County Agricultural Society: E. O. Peck, President; D. L. Bailey, Vice President; C. L. Wilcox, Cornelius Morgan, M. V. Miller and W. Grant managers.

Some of our citizens who went to Warren came back somewhat lighter than they went. Dr. P. E. Hall had $300 lifted from his pocket, and Capt. Dece lost some $6 or $7. The losses of much larger sums were reported.

Bieder has opened the Oyster trade with a luscious article of "New York Counts," which bear sampling. His stock is now all from the same quarter, and are thought to be a little ahead of the Baltimore product.

Mr. C. S. Anderson, formerly of Ashtabula, is now connected with the Dayton Evening Record. "Doc" is a natural journalist, and his friends here will be pleased to know he is connected with so good a paper as the Record.

No less than 75 of our citizens took advantage of the excursion rates to attend the Pittsburgh Exposition. The trip was a very satisfactory and pleasant one. As extremes met let the two ends of A. & P. road be brought into social and business relations.

Mr. George Nettleton has just received the present of a five year old Gelding from his brother William of St. Paul. He is green—not having been handled—but he has power and a pretty free way going, and with a little training he will not be likely to take with out any of our flyers.

A treatise on the Horse and his diseases, by Dr. B. J. Kendall. A cheap, comprehensive and useful book for every one keeping a horse. Price 25 cents. Sold by Parshall, Kingsville—Thurber & Co., and C. E. Swift, Ashtabula.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS

Concessions, Tuesday evening October 8th, A. M. Cox and C. R. Goldard, Esq.

Capt. J. B. Burrows and E. L. Lupton, Esq., will address the citizens of Orwell, Saturday evening, Oct. 2.

Capt. J. B. Burrows, of Painesville, and Hon. E. H. Fitch, of Jefferson, will address the citizens of Rock Creek, at the Town Hall, on Friday evening of this week.

There will be a grand Republican meeting at Jefferson on Monday afternoon Oct. 4th. Hon. James G. Blaine, of Maine, will address the meeting.

Captain Gilkey of the Ashtabula Light Guards has received $253 from the State for payment of the members of his company who took part in the last annual encampment. The money for the payment of the Tenth Regiment band has been received by Colonel Orl and will soon be paid over.

Frank A. Pettibone, Esq., delivered a rousing speech at Rock Creek on Friday evening last, to a large and enthusiastic audience. In the course of the evening several Democratic countermeasures were directed out to him which were answered in his usual prompt and decisive manner to the disappointment of the Democrats.

To meet the loss of dropping subscribers, our neighbor of the News is offering to send the paper for three months without pay, on the assumed ground of the parties being "hard up." This kind of donation is not having a very flattering effect upon the pride of those it is proposed—without their wish—to put upon the pauper list.

The Rev. E. H. Yingling, former pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of this place, goes to Steubenville, Ohio, where he is to officiate in the second M. E. church of that city, taking the place of Rev. Harvey Webb, who has been appointed pastor of the Ashtabula Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Elder Day has been assigned to Alliance, Stark Co.

The arrangements on the A. & P. Ry. for running special trains and avoiding accidents and delays were very perfect last Tuesday, and great credit is due Superintendent McCoy and his able assistants. Every mile of the road from Ashtabula to Youngstown was picked over by watchmen and many other unusual precautions taken, which resulted in prompt moving of trains, and not an accident to a passenger.

Landlord Baldwin, of the American House at the Hub, has some of the qualities of a good truck horse. No matter what the multitude is that swarm to his tables to be fed he is never found unprepared. He always has another link to let out, and when the multitude are filled there is about the same quantity left. During fair week the current was such as to frighten a novice in the culinary art, but he never seemed to give the thing a second thought, and all were satisfied.

The reader will find some very good campaign reading in the letters of some of our correspondents. The series of Homo, which has been running for four to five weeks, has attracted some attention, and now the second article of the series appears, of T. P. C. of Rock Creek, will attract further attention—especially of young voters to whom the numbers are addressed. There is more importance in the stand taken in casting the first vote than we may think.

It was the surprise of almost everyone who has alluded to the matter in our hearing, that the citizens of Warren were able to receive the immense multitude that gathered in that city at the grand demonstration on Tuesday last. The intelligent forethought that was so apparent in meeting so many contingencies likely to arise affecting the comfort of the multitude, seems not to escape the notice of many of those who enjoyed the benefit of all this tact and forethought.

H. H. Hunt is decorating his farm barn by a coat of paint and a new (in part) out by H. Topky & Co. What does all this fixing up mean?

Mean? Why it means this and nothing more. He wants to and is afraid. We knew an old bachelor down in the Nantux State who kept doing the same thing for some 40 or 50 years, till he had a princely mansion and appointments all unoccupied. A year or two before he died, at something over 70, he took one of the girls he had been fooling around all that time, and left her the use of his estate as long as she remained single.

Mr. James H. Savage, whose sickness was mentioned in the Telegraph of last week died on Saturday morning last after a short, but painful illness. He was first taken down with typhoid fever, after which kidney trouble set in which terminated in his death. He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Linus Savage and has for a number of years resided in Mentor, to which place the remains were taken last Monday, where they will be deposited by the side of his wife who died about four years ago. The funeral service was held at the house of his parents on Monday morning.

The hardware firm of Geo. C. Hubbard & Co. has been dissolved and the new firm of Dodge & Paine is announced as its successor. Mr. Dodge is well and favorably known to the citizens of Ashtabula County, having been for several years connected with this old establishment as salesman, and for the last few years being engaged with his father and brother at South New Lyme, in breeding and importing Cotswold sheep and Shorthorn cattle. Mr. George B. Paine the junior member of the new firm formerly lived in Painesville but for the past seven years has been with the large hardware firm of Wm. Bingham & Co. of Cleveland. Mr. Dodge has rented the Mitchell residence on Lake street and will remove his family there. Mr. Paine will also remove his family here at an early day.

WARRANTY and Quit Claim Deeds, Real Estate and Chattel Mortgages, Leases, Land Contracts and a full supply of Justice's and Notary Blanks kept at the Telegraph office.

TO THE EXPOSITION

A special excursion train will leave Ashtabula at 6:30 a. m. on Tuesday, October 8th for Pittsburgh, via the Ashtabula & Pittsburgh Ry. The fare for the round trip has been placed at the low price of $2.75, and the railway company will do all in its power to make this one of the finest excursions ever given over this popular route. The train will be composed of elegant and comfortable coaches, and at Ashtabula Youngstown will run as a through train, reaching Pittsburgh at 10:30 a. m., and making the entire run in four hours which is as fast as express time. The excursion given to the Exposition over this road September 21st was a grand success, and as this will be the last it is expected a large number of excursionists will take advantage of the inducements offered. The Exposition closes on Saturday the 9th inst.

Mrs. Capt. Shaylor was the victim of a surprise on Monday evening. Some thirty friends swooped down upon her in body, without a suspicion, on the occasion of her 60th birthday, which occurred on Sunday last. The occasion was a very pleasant one, made so by social intercourse and the rich repast that was participated in.

KANSAS SUFFERERS.—We are satisfied from facts and figures submitted to us by Rev. S. S. Bartlett—now at Rock Creek—that he has been wronged by the allusion made to him in the last number of the TELEGRAPH, in connection with the Norton county sufferers in Kansas. By an article in the Norton county Advance, we have abundant evidence that the famine and suffering in that county exists, and that it is very severe, even to the extent of compelling the people to flee to more favored sections. The number of sufferers from actual investigation is but little short of 2,000. An organization for soliciting relief embraces many of the county officers, which is made efficient under the official seal of the county. As to the connection of Mr. Bartlett with the matter, he produces his credentials which appear to be regular and authoritative. Owing to jealousies between the state and county committees, a jar occurred and until this is arranged Mr. Bartlett and his companion, Rev. Mr. Chesser who together made collection to the amount of $40, before coming to Ohio, for the sufferers, which we are informed will, as far as Mr. Bartlett is concerned be accounted for when the manner of its disposition shall be agreed upon by the properly constituted committees. Not a dollar has been collected for the Kansas sufferers in this state.

Mr. Bartlett represents himself and family as among the sufferers, and in a condition of great destitution, but notwithstanding their easy means of living, they have not had any outside aid, except such as has been generously furnished by their own immediate personal friends, and for their own special individual wants.

Mr. Bartlett expects to remain in Rock Creek, or vicinity, and to this end has sent for his family.

One of the greatest changes to be seen in the march of progress at the Harbor, is the taking down the hill rising from the east side to the residence of the Widow Thayer. The material was mainly used for filling in the marsh lying between its foot and the channel. This marsh has been nearly filled, and become solid ground, raised to an even grade with the dock just built along the river front. This work, though a somewhat formidable one, has been done by the two banks—the Farmers' National and the Loan Association. It gives a considerable area of dock accommodation, filling the space between the east line of the pontoon bridge and the Lake Shore dock, and is the most eligibly located along the water front. Already the upper dock—that of the Loan Association adjoining the Lake Shore premises—is occupied by a large lumber yard by Messrs. Kunkle & Son, who propose to put up a planing mill, and to go into the manufacture of dressed lumber and other building materials for the wholesale trade, by rail. The whole area of dockage will no doubt be put to a good use as soon as completed. The change is such as to well put the old habitué at fault, in after time, while looking for old landmarks.

The Reporter waxed facetious over the oratorical efforts of our fellow citizens—Messrs. Hoyt and Athorp. It says all sorts of funny things as well as some not a little incongruous about them to quoting from their utterances. Our contemporary should make all due allowance for the youth and inexperience of these gentlemen and give full force to the fact that their democratic patriotism sometimes gets the advantage of them, and their efforts are not always in the ratio of the importance of the place they hold from. They are nevertheless very clever fellows and have ample time and room for growth and development.

A Monster Meeting.

PRESEDED OVER BY GRANT AND ADDRESS BY DODGING.

Forty thousand spectators assembled to honor the occasion—and show their support for the cause which will receive its all-own district.

The mass meeting held at Warren on Tuesday last was the grandest political demonstration Ohio has seen for many a day. It was expected it would be a huge affair but it exceeded the expectations of all. To give a correct estimate of the number of persons present is an impossibility, it being variously estimated from thirty to seventy-five thousand. When the large wigwam capable of containing 10,000 persons was packed with surging humanity the crowd outside and in the street seemed to be no smaller. When we say 40,000 persons were present we think we have made a low estimate. The weather was favorable until evening, when a drizzling rain set in, but the major part of the programme had been carried out, and the arrangements for the exercises were but slightly interrupted thereby. The arrangements for receiving and caring for this vast multitude were for which perfect as could be expected and for which the citizens of Warren and Trumbull county deserve great credit.

GENERAL GRANT.

Went to Warren by way of the N. Y. & O. Ry. leaving Cleveland at 8:18 o'clock on Tuesday morning, accompanied by General Logan, Hon. Simon Cameron and a number of Cleveland gentlemen and reporters. Warren was reached at 11:23, and the guests driven to the residence of Hon. H. B. Perkins.

THE PROCESSION.

Started at one o'clock, and was nearly an hour in passing a given point. It was composed of numerous bands of music, torch companies, the Second Battery, O. N. G., Warren Fire Department, General Grant, Senator Cookling and other distinguished guests in carriages, Garfield and Arthur Clubs from different towns in the district, etc. There were two canal boats in the procession drawn by mules in regular tow-path style, and filled with cheer chiefs. After passing through the principal streets, which were filled with enthusiastic multitudes the carriages containing General Grant, Senator Cookling and other distinguished guests arrived.

AT THE WIGWAM.

Which was soon filled, and thousands outside vainly endeavoring to gain admission. Order was soon restored and General Grant was introduced amid the loudest applause. The speeches of the General and Senator Cookling followed and were listened to with the closest attention.

While the speaking in the wigwam was progressing, thousands were gathered about both sides of the Court House listening to the eloquent addresses of Hon. S. A. Northway and General J. A. Beaver.

IN THE EVENING.

The crowd was considerably smaller, many returning on the early train. Speeches were made by W. P. Bradley, of Kentucky; President Chubburn of Williams College; General Beaver and A. W. Jones, Esq.

GENERAL GRANT.

Senator Cookling and General Logan left Warren at 5:30 p. m. via the Ashtabula & Pittsburgh Railway by a special train, and were accompanied by Judge I. S. Sherman, Judge H. B. Woodbury, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Fitch, Superintendent McCoy and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jaques and Mr. Hannon of Rochester. The train was 55 minutes in running the 45 miles, which included one full stop and three partial stops. 40 out of the 45 miles were run in 40 minutes. Superintendent McCoy acted as conductor and Alexander Galloway operated the throttle. When the L. S. & M. S. Ry. was reached the locomotive Reindeer was attached to train and the run of 32 miles to Mentor was made in forty-two minutes.

THE FAIR.

We had a promise of a full report of the county fair, but as it failed to reach us, we are left to a brief, cursory allusion—such as we are enabled to make from a visit on the closing day.

Contrary to the usual practice, the premium horses, neat stock, sheep and swine, were upon the ground on Friday, which lent to the last day more than usual attractions. These several departments were well represented. Dodge's herd had a number of fine specimens of short horns. The taste of breeders runs to the Devon color, which adds to their otherwise fine appearance. There were three specimens from Windsor—we believe—of the Holstein breed. These are the first that have been exhibited. They are as large as the short horns, but are coarser, not as smooth and symmetrical, more bony, and its color black or mixed with white. A number of Alderneys were also present with specimens of Herefords. Dea Johnson of Saybrook had upon the ground his 63 pound milkster—The greatest dairy animal, perhaps, in the county.

The stock of sheep were mostly confined to the Merino and Cotswold. The horses were not in large numbers—probably because of the races not being in favor. Albert Harmon had his satellite filly on exhibition as a carriage horse, and George Nettleton's Minnesota gelding the same. The latter taking the sweepstakes.

Swine were in moderate numbers, but of fine quality. The Chester Whites, Berkshire, the Poland Chins, and the Victoria. Of these last, Richard Stevens has a boar and sow, an 18 lb old progenator of the Lancashire breed. Mr. S. expects to give his special attention to the Victorias. These are well formed for pork qualities, being long and deep and well rounded up for hams. They are small boned and beautiful in form. Breeders will find them all that can be desired. The procession on the track was a novel as well as fine sight.

Mr. Wire, with his cheese vat and cheese in press were attractive, together with the other agricultural implements.

Vegetables were very fine, scarce ever better. Grain, too, could hardly be better.

Time was not allowed for a general notion of the indoor commodities that filled up the accommodation for good them, and looked generally well.

The elegant work of Blakeslee & Moore in photography, took—as they undoubtedly should—several of the first premiums.

The Secretary informed us that the receipts of Thursday had seldom been exceeded. The attendance came up to 15,000, and although the receipts on the whole, did not quite equal some previous years, the expenses were less, and the net income was better than before. The officers of the association were well pleased at the position of the business, and encouraged at the ability afforded of much reducing the debt, if indeed it was not wholly wiped out.

The following appointments of method-ist preachers are selected because of their locality within our county, and therefore are more particularly interesting to our readers.
